

About Sean - short

Exploring the edges of joy and beyond.

Composer, producer, pianist and percussionist, Sean Mackenzie's eccentric style embodies a worldwide journey through the music of Brazil, Latin Americas, Africa, Asia and the European Gypsies. He is described as a "master storyteller" by premier Australian music critic John Shand, whose narrative "unfolds compellingly from one note to the next". This unique style is what sets Sean apart and makes him an important artist in the fusion of world music.
